

Music for Youth Prom

Fantastic performance from In Harmony today on stage at the Victoria Hall, Hanley as part of Music for Youth Primary Proms.

In Harmony is a project running in primary schools in Stoke and Telford. Today's performance was pupils from Old Park Primary School in Telford. The project is funded by Arts Council England and the DfE and is led by 'The Music Partnership'

Great performances of Dambusters, Hall of the Mountain King and March from Carmen.

Well done everyone. You were brilliant!
